Judges

On the Court's own motion, it is ordered that the parties to this appeal submit a statement, no longer than two type-written pages excluding the caption, explaining, to the best of their knowledge, the outcome, results, and rulings in the bankruptcy court, arising out of defendant John P. Rider's attempt to reopen the bankruptcy estate and attempt to initiate an adversarial action against defendant Delta Properties, and the ramifications, if any, on this appeal.

It is also ordered that the parties submit any copies of orders, rulings, judgments, or opinions issued by the bankruptcy court, if in their possession, relative to the attempted reopening of the bankruptcy estate and adversarial proceedings.

The documents and the parties' statements are to be filed with this Clerk of this Court within seven (7) days of the certification date of this order.
